

FLY THE FLAG
for
ST. EDWARD, KING & MARTYR

The Parish Church
Corfe Castle
Dorset

In the Diocese of Salisbury England

People of this village have kept this Church door open since the 13th century, welcoming all comers. During the 17th century Civil War (1643-45) Cromwell's men vandalised the building, where they also stabled their horses and used the 14th century Purbeck Marble Font as a trough. By 1673 the Church was restored for use, and in the 19th century the main part was reconstructed. All this was achieved by the support of the local community. Now, in this 21st century, St. Edward's Church once more needs "FRIENDS" to keep the Church Door open.

The Flag of St. Edward

The Four Crowns represent the reign of four years of this boy King of all England. The Cross for martyrdom.
